ELEANOR WILSON McADOO
Daughter of Late President

son McAdoo, youngest daughter of the late President Woodrow Wilson.

Mrs. McAdoo, who has been a resident of California seventeen years, is well known as a writer, her outstanding work being her biography, "The Woodrow Wilsons." A charming and delightful personality, Mrs. McAdoo will bring an interesting message to the expected 500 guests.

Musical program will feature Miss Linda Ware, 15-year-old vocalist who appeared with Bing Crosby in "The Star-Maker" and was heard at the Hollywood Bowl with Leopold Stokowsky.

Kindling of the Chanukah candles by an aged Home resident and singing of the chants by Bobby and Michael Breen are other program features. Invocation will be offered by Rabbi Solomon M. Neches.

Special guests will include Miss Mercedes de Acosta and Mrs. Harry Blodgett. The latter is presi-
